

18 October 2004

Official AWI election website launched

Australian Wool Innovation last week announced the nomination of 3 new candidates for the upcoming election of the AWI Board including high profile knitwear manufacturer Kathy Walker Shaw.

Kathy has welcomed the first stage of this process, encouraged by the tremendous support from woolgrowers.

Kathy Walker Shaw wishes to advise you of the launch of the new website www.kws4awi.com.

Kathy said "This new website is to assist growers to communicate at all times. This website will be continually updated and maintained in order to offer independent communication to woolgrowers. Feedback is always encouraged."

Related Links

<http://australianwoolgrowers.com.au/>