

Australian woolgrowers, time is running out

to have your say in WoolPoll 2012

- With only two weeks to go in WoolPoll 2012, it's time for woolgrowers to have your say in what you contribute to industry research, development and marketing.
- If you need more information to help you make your decision, go to www.woolpoll.com.au
- You can vote online – it's quick and simple – follow the prompts at www.woolpoll.com.au and have your shareholder number handy.
- Take five minutes to vote - it's easier than ever at www.woolpoll.com.au
- Your options are for a 3%, 2.5%, 2%, 1% or 0% levy
- AWI has recommended growers maintain the 2% levy. AWI Chief Executive Officer Stuart McCullough said this week that: "Maintaining the 2% levy will enable AWI to continue to deliver gains for growers in productivity, profitability and access to new markets."

VOTING CLOSES 5PM FRIDAY 2 NOVEMBER:

Vote online at www.woolpoll.com.au or by mail or fax – see details in your Voter Information Kit or call the help line: 1800 209 118

Make your voice heard: It's your income, your business and your future.
