

AWGA - News Update

"50 % of growers give AWI the thumbs down."

Rural press's recent poll survey of 415 growers saw 50.1% of growers giving AWI a "Fail". AWGA suspects that falling wool prices are the main reason for this poor report card. Should such sentiment govern the forthcoming WoolPoll vote, then a zero vote or reduced levy is now a strong possibility.

Q: What grade would give AWI's performance over the past three years?

Excellent
(5.3%)

Above average
(6%)

Acceptable
(38.6%)

Fail
(50.1%)
